

.vimrc and my belief about it

VimConf2024 LT

Notices

This presentation is only my opinion

Who is this speaker?

Omochice
3 years of employment
as a system enginner

My initial commit for .vimrc

A screenshot of a GitHub repository page for the user 'Omochice'. The repository name is 'dotfiles'. The 'Code' tab is selected, showing a single commit. The commit hash is '92265a6'. It was authored and committed by 'Omochice-E130' on April 10, 2020. The commit message is 'update tmux.conf add vimrc'. The branch is 'main'.

Omochice / dotfiles

<> Code Issues 26 Pull requests 6 Discussions Actions

Commit 92265a6

Omochice-E130 authored and committed on Apr 10, 2020

```
update tmux.conf add vimrc
```

main

Life stage has changed

Student to Working adult

Changes about Vim

- Lost time for trying vim plugins and re-inventing
- Shift "Hobby tool" to "Tool for making money"

My belief has changed

Changes

- Want to handle all task in Vim
 - => Want to call other tools for vim non-friendly data
- Search plugins from online hosting services
 - => Learn plugins from other person's vimrc

Reading Vimrc

<https://vim-jp.org/reading-vimrc/>

Not changes

- Vim should not cut off my thought
- Keep plugins latest
- Explicitly rather than implicitly

Q.

What is your belief about vimrc?

Examples...

- Handling all tasks in vim
- Harmonize vim with other tools
- Customize all configurations
- Use default features

etc...

After all...

All your needs is known by you only

Have a good vim journey!

:wq